

E-book evolution: voices & vision for legislative change

Registration 08:30-09:00

Opening 09:00-09:15

Giorgos Glossiotis, KR21 National Coordinator

Chryssa Nikolaou, NLG Director General

Anthi Katsirikou, President Association of Greek Librarians and Information Scientists

Moderator: Eva Semertzaki, ex-Chief Librarian, Bank of Greece

Session 1: Global perspectives 09:15-10:15

09:15-09:35

Vicki McDonald, IFLA President

“Sustainable Futures for All through Knowledge and Information: the work and goals of IFLA”

09:35-09:55

Sharon Memis, IFLA Secretary General

“Changing perceptions, realising potential: IFLA’s agenda for maximising the impact of libraries”

10:00-10:15

Stephen Wyber, IFLA External Affairs Director

“21st Century access to knowledge, education and culture: the Knowledge Rights 21 Campaign”

Session 2: E-books in Greece 10:20-11:10

Giorgos Glossiotis, Librarian, Member, IFLA Regional Division Committee Europe, National Coordinator in Greece, Knowledge Rights 21

Nikos Panayotopoulos, Professor of Sociology, NKUA Communication and Mass Media Studies

Michalis Kalamaras, Publishing consultant, Thinking, Founder, eAnagnostis.gr

“E-books and libraries in Greece: key findings of the research”

All:10-11:40 Coffee break

Session 3: AI, e-books and libraries 11:40-13:20

11:40-12:00

Dr. Marinos Papadopoulos, Attorney-at-Law

“Οὐτις ἐμοί γ’ ὄνομα | My name is Nobody”

12:00-12:20

Dr. Maria-Daphne Papadopoulou, Acting Director, Hellenic Copyright Organization

“Training AI in libraries: copyright issues”

12:20-12:40

Dr. Roxana Theodorou, Information Scientist, Library of the Hellenic Parliament

“Censorship & AI, or how the Ministry of Truth is finally open for business”

12:40-13:00

Dr. Dimitris Kouis, Associate Professor & President at the Archival, Library and Information Studies Department, University of West Attica

“Sustainable models for leveraging e-books to foster innovative approaches in the dissemination and representation of scholarly knowledge”

13:00-13:20

Dr. Michalis Gerolimos, Head of Cataloging Department, NLG

“A national service for the print-disabled and the role of the National Library of Greece”

13.20-13.40 Coffee break

Session 4: Stakeholders Opinion-Panel discussion 13:40-14:20

“Voices and vision for legislative change”

Lambrini Kouzeli, Book critic, journalist

Thodoris Georgakopoulos, Writer, journalist

Nikos Argyris, Ikaros Publishing

Ntina Kakali, Director, Panteion University Library

14:20-14:30 Closing